

L'ami

Perhaps a wand'rer in the fields tonight
Looks up into the sky, and finds some star
Pinpricked in heaven's veil, and shining bright,
Yet dim with distance, smiling back from far.

Perhaps you have observed a candle's fire
Without much notice, living by its light
And knew, too late, the candle guttering,
How friendly was its warmth, and, oh, how bright.

Perhaps you've heard folks say, in a folkish way,
That water's never missed until it's not.
Perhaps you've never marked an eagle's days,
Or thought of sorrows — joys you hadn't got.

Perhaps I've lived, and never known the dawn
Until I woke to find that it was gone.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

HE hath made every thing beautiful in His time; also He hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

Highlights of the 1971-72 Bruin J.V. basketball season consisted of both a positive and a negative component. The negative aspect was a loss to Multnomah Bible varsity after battling through regulation play to end in a tie at 65-65 and then playing through four overtimes before the final loss.

The high point of the season was the final game with the JV's recording the first win ever against the alumni as the basically frosh group outscored the grads 68-63. Consistently strong performances were recorded by Freshmen Howie Loewen and Del Dittus. The only returning players, sophomores Tom Bronleewe and Steve Gulley gave some experience at the guards. The other team members, all of whom were freshmen, consisted of Tim Bletscher, Curtis Travis, Eb Buck, Don O'Neil and Bob Merritt.

The Bruins bowed to the Willamette Bearcats in the NAIA District 2 play-off game, 69-60. The Bearcats earned the right to play Lewis and Clark College.

At half-time the Bruins led 29-28 and gave the Bearcats all they could handle in the opening 20 minutes using an effective zone defense that cut off Bearcat scorers.

The second half was all Willamette's which left the Bruins with a 13-12 record for the season.

Graduation

The repetition of a regular pattern emphasizes the uniqueness of the subject himself

One of the world's most famous "positive thinkers" addressed the 1972 George Fox College graduating class June 4.

Dr. Robert Schuller, addressing the class had these comments:
 "I don't care what it is, if it's in your mind, believe it and you can achieve it."

"The worst that can happen is that you can fail, but not to win is not a sin, but not to try is a disgrace."

" 'Try,' the most important thing I'm going to say tonight."

"Better to do something imperfectly than nothing perfectly."

"When faced with a mountain, I will not quit, I will keep on striving until I climb over it, find a pass through, tunnel underneath or simply stay and turn the mountain into a gold mine with God's help!"

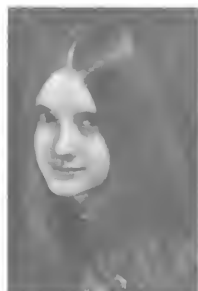

The Rev. Robert H. Schuller, author of the best-selling book, "Move Ahead With Possibility Thinking," spoke at commencement exercises starting at 7 p.m. in the Newberg High School gymnasium.

Baccalaureate services were at 11 a.m. Sunday, also in the high school gym, with Dr. Everett L. Cattell, president of Malone College, Canton, Ohio, as speaker. Dr. Cattell received an honorary doctorate from the college, only the eleventh it has given in 81 years.

LEARNING, ANALYZING THE COLOR OF THE PAST IN ORDER TO LIGHT SOME PART OF THE WORLD'S PRESENT DARKNESS . . . THE LIFE OF A STUDENT.

To every memory there is
A season and a time
To every emotion
Under the heaven;
A time to weep,
And a time to laugh
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
A time to remember old Friends, and time to Grow enough to befriend
A whole new world.
